STATE OF GEORGIA.

Adjutant and Inspector General's Office.

MILLEDGEVILLE, MARCH 16TH, 1864.

GENERAL ORDERS }
No. 8. }

To correct a misunderstanding which has arisen in this office, from a want of familiarity with the polity of some of the religious denominations, and in the exercise of the discretion vested in him by the 21st Section of the Act of December the 14th, 1863, "re-organizing the Militia," the Governor directs, that all ordained ministers of Religion, Local or Itinerant, that is to say, those authorized to administer Baptism and the Sacraments, and all Preachers belonging to the "Georgia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South", shall be exempt from enrollment in the Militia.

Aids-de-Camp and Enrolling Officers will govern themselves accordingly.

By order of the Commander-in-Chief :

HENRY C. WAYNE,
Adj. & Ins. General.

THE HISTORY OF THE
CITY OF BOSTON
FROM THE FIRST SETTLEMENT
TO THE PRESENT TIME

BY JOHN HUTCHINGS

The first settlement of the city of Boston was made in the year 1630, by a company of Puritan settlers, who came from England, and were led by John Winthrop. They settled on the island of Boston, and built a fort, and a church, and a school, and a city. The city grew rapidly, and by the year 1690 it was one of the largest and most important cities in the New England colonies. It was the seat of government, and the center of commerce, and the home of many of the great men of the time. It was the first city to be founded by a company of settlers, and it was the first city to be governed by a charter. It was the first city to have a mayor, and it was the first city to have a city council. It was the first city to have a city court, and it was the first city to have a city police. It was the first city to have a city library, and it was the first city to have a city hospital. It was the first city to have a city prison, and it was the first city to have a city workhouse. It was the first city to have a city almshouse, and it was the first city to have a city poorhouse. It was the first city to have a city cemetery, and it was the first city to have a city park. It was the first city to have a city street, and it was the first city to have a city bridge. It was the first city to have a city harbor, and it was the first city to have a city wharf. It was the first city to have a city dock, and it was the first city to have a city pier. It was the first city to have a city quay, and it was the first city to have a city pier. It was the first city to have a city quay, and it was the first city to have a pier.
